POSITION DESCRIPTION
The Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a one year pool of qualified temporary instructors to teach courses in Marketing as a lecturer should an opening arise. Screening of applicants is ongoing and will continue as needed. The number of positions varies from semester to semester, depending on the needs of the department.

General Duties:
In addition to teaching responsibilities, general duties include:
• Holding office hours
• Assigning grades
• Advising students
• Preparing course materials.

UC Berkeley has an excellent benefits package as well as a number of policies and programs to support employees as they balance work and family.

Haas School of Business is committed to creating an inclusive environment, one that is supportive of all individuals, regardless of background. We are committed to building an excellent and diverse faculty, staff, and student body, and we welcome applicants whose experiences have prepared them to contribute to this commitment.

The position is in a represented bargaining unit.

Please note: The use of a lecturer pool does not guarantee that an open position exists. See the review date specified in AP Recruit to learn whether the Department is currently reviewing applications for a specific position. If there is no future review date specified, your application may not be considered at this time. If you would like to continue to be considered beyond this one year pool you will need to submit a new application.

For those who are not US citizens or permanent residents, a legal permit that allows work in the United States (such as a US visa that allows employment) is required by the start date of the position. The department is unable to provide a visa/work permit.

Under Federal Law, the University of California may employ only individuals who are legally able to work in the United States as established by providing documents specified in the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
